In addition we are pleased to offer a second bursary, valued at $200, which is meant to encourage the next generation of young musicians who are building their experience and honing their craft. It is open to musicians between the ages of 15 and 20 by December 31, 2018 who are striving to be their best. The activities for which the Bursary is being sought must occur within sixteen months of the announcement of the Bursary recipient. The application must be supported by one written recommendation from the applicant's music teacher/conductor. The same application form and deadline as the Lady Cove Women's Choir Bursary will be used.

Applications

Applications will be reviewed by the Bursary Committee of the Lady Cove Women's Choir, which is comprised of Choir and Board members, and community representatives. The winner will be notified before April 30, 2019. Recipients are required to demonstrate that the funds were used for the proposed activity. In the event the bursary cannot be used by the recipient, it should be returned to Lady Cove Women's Choir. For this reason applicants should attempt to list more than one proposed activity on the bursary application.
