Pax! Brings Songs of Peace to the Basilica of St. John the Baptist

Newman Sound & Lady Cove present a spring choral event featuring guest youth choirs from Eastern Newfoundland.

St. John's, NL, March 5, 2013: On Saturday, March 23, 2013, at the historic Basilica of St. John the Baptist, Lady Cove Women's Choir and Newman Sound Men's Choir will present Pax!, an evening of mystical sacred choral music. Come and be transported from the fast pace of reality by such works as Ubi Caritas by contemporary Norwegian composer Ola Gjeilo, O Salutaris Hostia by Latvian composer Eriks Esenvalds, and Moses Hogan's powerful spiritual, Elijah Rock.

This year, Pax! will also include performances by incredible young singers. The Clarenville High School Boys Choir, under the direction of Ann Lundrigan, the St. Bonaventure's College Camerata, under the direction of Maria Conkey, and the Junior and Senior Children's Choirs of Shallaway will fill your heart with reflections of peace through their eyes.

"We're returning for a second straight season with Pax!" said Kellie Walsh, Artistic Director of both Newman Sound and Lady Cove. "The concert is devoted to messages of peace and this year it will be extra special. Amid beautiful choral music, we'll be sharing innocent and wise reflections on peace in the world from our youngest singers."

Tickets are $24/$18 plus $2 box office surcharge and are available at the Holy Heart Theatre Box Office in person, online at www.holyhearttheatre.com, by email at theatreboxoffice@nf.aibn.com, or phone at 709-579-4424. Showtime is 8 p.m.
