Lady Cove celebrates 10 years of support with Thank You for the Music!

Lady Cove Women's Choir presents a spring celebration of their fans and their music with a special treat – it's bring your own beverage!

St. John's, NL, May 21, 2013: For 10 years Lady Cove has been delivering heart-stopping performances across Newfoundland & Labrador and around the world. On June 8, at St. Mary's Anglican Church Hall, the Choir will deliver a concert to remember, celebrating all the support from their fans and remembering the best performances of the last decade in Thank You for the Music!

The concert will also feature two exciting new projects from Lady Cove. The release of the Choir's second recording, *Heart's Delight, and the inauguration of a new music festival from the choir the Edge Island Festival, with special guest composer, Sarah Quartel.

"Lady Cove has been making music now for 10 years," said Kellie Walsh, Artistic Director of Lady Cove. "This concert is a chance for us to share some of the highlights of our history with our fans, and our community supporters. I'm so excited to be able to share the release of two long-standing projects with our dearest friends – the new CD and the new Edge Island Festival."

As always, with this spring performance, guests are welcome to bring along wine, or any beverage of choice to enjoy during the performance. Lady Cove will provide a light snack while guests are invited to participate in a live & silent auction, a dessert auction, and a full evening of fun.

Tickets are $30 or $40 including a copy of Heart's Delight. Available at the Holy Heart Theatre Box Office in person, online at www.holyhearttheatre.com, by email at theatreboxoffice@nf.aibn.com, or phone at 579-4424. Show time is 7:30 p.m.
